Kelty Cabins Living Accommodation... The Kitchen, Dining & Livingroom space.

The living accommodation has to be seen to be believed! Built within a twin Kota, from the outside many describe our Kelty Cabins as a Hobbit House. Inside, the interiors and design have left so many in awe... twin octagonal rooms with chandelier style lighting on ceilings reaching nearly 4 metres high. The living room come kitchen/dining, is spacious and overall, can accommodate up to 6 people, with all the little luxuries and home comforts included... even a dishwasher!

Kelty Cabins Living Accommodation... The Sleeping & heavenly Wetroom space.

The sleeping accommodation is perfectly and luxuriously planned with a double-mezzanine-floor bunk bed, single bed & king-sized sofa bed in the living room, all leading to an astoundingly big and very beautiful wet room... to quote so many... "I wasn't expecting that!".

Kelty Cabins - The Space all around...

There are three luxury Kelty Cabins on site... each one is very similar but all have something that make them unique & special. Built on a flat site & a gentle gradient at the entrance, Cabin 1 is kit with subtle accessibility features that make wheelchair access and living a pleasure. Cabin 3 is the most private Cabin being located at the furthest end of the site. Cabin 2, in the middle, has the longest patio space and most central view... they all share the most extraordinary views. You will be blessed with our wonderful wildlife & for those wishing to go wild themselves... we have a play area & open space across from the Cabins for anyone who wishes to kick a ball around & have fun.

We're sorry to say we're not pet friendly but we do have a first class Kuruba Kennels nearby should a trusted friend or family member be unable to help out.

Loch Lomond & the Trossachs National Park has a wealth of food treasures & culinary surprises... indeed, far too many to list here! So here are a few that guests have mentioned or the locals could recommend all within about 20 minutes from here...

Places to Dine...

Black Bull Restaurant & Pub in Gartmore village is a short, 10 mins, walk up-hill, midway in to the village. Equally so, guests have mentioned The Fairie Tree ... "great for a hot chocolate & phone signal"... The Coach House, Rob Roy Hotel, Liz MacGregors, Maggies Kitchen & The Station House are all close by for a nibble, in Aberfoyle, only 7 mins drive away.

Every village has its' little food treasures... Callander, 15/20 mins away, will not disappoint! But even the locals would struggle to choose...all are truly wonderful!

An all-round favourite, Lion & Unicorn in Thornhill. Do call first to book, especially at the weekends & during public holidays. Only 20 mins drive away, it's well worth the feast.

Karma at Port of Menteith, resting on the banks of Lake of Menteith only 10 or so minutes from here. You can dine in the restaurant but do call first. The bar meals are lovely but tables here cannot be reserved, spaces are limited & guests are welcomed on a first come, first served basis. The views are beautiful!

The Oak Tree Inn, Balmaha... an absolute treasure of a find! Particularly if you would also enjoy the fresh air & views of the Banks of Loch Lomond. About 20 mins away, unfortunately, you cannot book in advance. It'll be busy!

The Steamship Café beside Loch Katrine is a handy stop if you have children & would like to fuel up before taking a walk, bike run or boat journey around Loch Katrine.

Doing it Yourself...

There is also a Co-op open 7am-10pm and the award winning Aberfoyle Butcher & Deli, both in Aberfoyle, only 7 minutes away, should you be interested in picking up some delicious delights. Saffron, in Balfron 10 mins away, are AMAZING! They will deliver a tasty curry straight to your Cabin door! The Chinese Village in Callander also deliver - just ask when you call... DELICIOUS!

Loch Lomond & the Trossachs National Park is blessed with such a wide offering of activities. Here are a few that come to mind! Every village holds something special, waiting to be discovered... the Devil's Pulpit, the wonderful Doon Hill and Fairy Knowe to hint at a few!
